NEW MILITARY COMPANY IN 1865

Company C. of Third Regiment Organized Here Fifty Years Ago With John E. Woodward as Captain—$500 Reward Offered by Norwich & Worcester Road—948 Scholars in Central District Schools.

The new military company which had been in the process of formation for several months during the late summer and fall of the year 1915 was organized and became a reality fifty years ago this week. John E. Woodward was chosen as captain of the company with Edwin S. Fitch as first lieutenant. The same week the annual meeting of the board of directors of the Society for the Promotion of Collegiate and Theological Education in the West, was held in the Second Congregational church. Chronicled events of November 1915 taken from the files of the Norwich Bulletin are as follows:

Monday, Nov. 13, 1865.—The suggestion made in the Bulletin some days since relative to raising by subscription a sufficient sum of money to pay the expense of sending south for the bodies of our dead soldiers, is about being acted upon and our citizens will take week by week to contribute to this object. We have no doubt that our citizens will respond to this call with a generous liberality and that the friends of our dead heroes can have the satisfaction of seeing their services brought back from rebel fields and interred home among friends.

The president of the Norwich and Worcester Railroad Company offered a $500 reward for the detection of the villain who placed the tie on that road Friday night which was arrested to the express freight train. Had this accident occurred to the steamboat, the result would doubtless have been a terrible disaster.

Vice President Foster and lady leave for Washington today and probably will remain until the meeting of Congress in December.

Arrested in Ireland as Fenian.

Tuesday, Nov. 14, 1865.—Lieut. Joseph H. Brown of the 3rd regiment, 9th regiment, with which regiment he was mustered out last summer, sailed from this country some six weeks since for Liverpool, where he arrived in safety. Soon after he took a steamer for Dublin, where he was arrested on his arrival on the 28th of October, on suspicion of Fenianism. In our European dispatch details are given of the articles found upon him. The news of his arrest causes much anxiety to his friends and countrymen in this city.

St. Major General Joseph R. Hawley was in town yesterday. He has been in the military service since the war and expects to be shortly when he intends to resume his editorial career. He was in the service since the war and expects to be shortly when he intends to resume his editorial career.

A donation party waited upon Rev. Edgar F. Clark of the Sackheim street M. E. church Saturday night and left him with a cash and such other of this world's goods as make the total value of the gifts about $130.

Company C. Organized.
Wednesday, Nov. 15, 1865.—The new military company organized on Tuesday by electing John E. Woodward, captain; Edwin S. Fitch, first lieutenant; and Francis S. Hawkins, second lieutenant. The two first named were in the 18th C. V. The company numbers sixty members and will be known as Co. C, 3rd regiment, First Brigade, Connecticut National Guard, though at present attached to the First Regiment, First Brigade.

The board of directors of the Society for the promotion of Collegiate and Theological education at the West, met in the evening of the 13th inst. at the residence of Rev. Dr. Palmer.

Whose lost a waterfall? John McGuinness and S. W. Bredd had yesterday. Mr. Swan will restore it to the owner upon application and will have a bottle of oil, oil, so that he need wear it no longer.

Edmund Clarence Steadman's Poem.
Thursday, Nov. 16, 1865.—The Round Table for this week will contain a poem of Edmund Clarence Steadman, formerly of this city, on the burial of George Arnold in Greenwood. It will also contain the last poem of the series of the "Mystic of the Nation Year."

There are 148 scholars in attendance at the school of Central district, of which John W. Allen is the principal. Of this number 111 are in the senior department.

Lorenzo Blackstone Buys Residence.
Friday, Nov. 17, 1865.—The sale at auction on Thursday of the house and lot on Sackheim street owned by Rev. J. P. Gulliver, attracted a very large attendance. The house and lot were purchased by Lorenzo Blackstone for $8,900. A portion of the furniture and the carriage, garden tools, etc., were disposed of to various parties, the bidding on some articles being being spirited.

The 38th congress will convene at Washington on the 4th of December, next. The senate will consist of 45 members of whom 37 were elected as republicans or Unionists and eleven as Democrats. Eleven states are now represented in the senate, and eleven chosen senators, and all of which will probably choose them before the session closes.

Turkey Disease Disappears.
The disease so fatal to turkeys that has prevailed here for a few weeks past has almost entirely disappeared and now we presume the turkeys will be "up and around" for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Saturday, Nov. 18, 1865.—Another railroad accident! The down freight train on the New London Northern railroad which leaves this city at 3:30 p. m., ran off the track Friday at Massapequa station, just this side of Montville. Three cars went off the track but no one was injured.

New York Boat Arrived in Afternoon.
Owing to a dense fog in New York, on Friday, the Norwich boats in Company with them did not reach New York until 3 p. m.

Occum Bus to Start.
St. John having demonstrated that omnibus lines are a good thing, proposes to start one to Occum, making the trip each day, reducing the number of trips to Greenville. People up Occum way can get the Bulletin at 7 a. m. daily by this route.

SUIT WITHDRAWN AGAINST
CAMP MEETING ASSOCIATION.

Mrs. A. H. Bronson Was Plaintiff Because Burnham's Tower Fell.

The superior court suit brought by Mrs. Annie H. Bronson of East Lyme against the Connecticut Spiritualists' Camp Meeting association for $5,000 damages for the falling of Burnham's tower upon Mrs. Bronson's cottage at the Spiritualists' camp meeting at Pine Grove, and crushing the cottage, has been withdrawn.

Mrs. Bronson recently secured a judgment in the superior court here for $1,250 in a suit against Joseph H. Burnham, owner of the tower.

The suit against the camp meeting association was brought on the ground that the association as lessors of the land to Mr. Burnham had the right to enter upon the Burnham lot and compel Mr. Burnham to keep the 125-foot wooden tower in a safe condition for adjoining property, but that the camp meeting association negligently failed to do this and that thereby the tower and its supports were in such a condition that it fell upon the Bronson cottage and demolished it on March 1, 1915.

The cottage was worth $2,500 and had furnishings in it worth $2,000.
